Handel's "Messiah" will be sung this afternoon at St. Anne's, Soho, by the Bach Choir. At 2.30 the London Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Sir Henry Wood, will play at Queen's Hall, and the Society of Women Musicians will give a concert at the same time at 74, Grosvenor-street.

There will be orchestral concerts at Central Hall in the evening and at St. Margaret's in the afternoon. Owing to the difficulty in obtaining orchestral parts from the Continent, Alec Rowley's concertino for organ and strings will have to be omitted from the St. Margaret's programme.
